

Acts of Courage at RLT

Welcome to our 2018/2019 Season: Acts of Courage. The plays and musicals we have picked all contain characters who must take a strong stand in the face of seemingly overwhelming obstacles. As they do, they learn more about their own capacity for making the world a better place. It is our hope that in witnessing their acts of courage, we will all be inspired to follow their lead and take a stand for what we believe or overcome any obstacle holding us back in order to move forward. Along with presenting these incredible shows, Raleigh Little Theatre is also moving forward in some exciting ways this season: This will be our first full season in the newly redesigned Gaddy-Goodwin Lobby and Theatre – marking the culmination of a courageous effort on the part of this community to make our facilities more accessible and help fulfill our mission of being a welcoming space. This also marks the first season where each show in our Family Series will offer a Sensory Friendly Performance! We are also excited to partner with The Raleigh Symphony Orchestra to present two concerts in the amphitheatre to expand your experience with us! So, we invite you to join us for our Acts of Courage as we move forward into the future at RLT!

Measure for Measure Dark Comedy

By William Shakespeare.

Vienna is beset with brothels and loose morality, and it's up to the Duke to provide some divine intervention. Shakespeare's comedy centers around the fate of Claudio, who is arrested by Lord Angelo, the temporary leader of Vienna.
